MAKE EVERY MOMENT COUNT

Paul is a retired vicar who found leaving his home of 50 years quite distressing and as such, he found it difficult to settle into life as a care home resident. Then he met Kerry.

Kerry is a young, working mum living in Essex. Her two little boys and demanding job kept her pretty busy, but Kerry often thought about finding a way to meet new people outside of her normal circles. She had heard about the FaNs network and got in touch.

MAKE EVERY MOMENT COUNT

Our FaNs come in all shapes and sizes. They include 6 year olds who paint pictures for a care home and young professionals living in the area, like Jimmy.

In our own lives, we know the importance of even the smallest of gestures. Something as simple as a friend making you a cup of tea and asking you about your day can mean everything.

Making every moment count doesn't have to mean a huge commitment. To find out how Jimmy made it count, visit our website.
